Company: Frost Group
 Burn Reg. Number(s): On file
 Issued: Friday, November 26, 2021
 FOR BURNING ON: Saturday, November 27, 2021

Synopsis:

Saturday: A brief break is seen between systems, with increasing stability under a weak flow. With easing winds, venting expected to be fair.

Sunday: Another system moves through the region, pushing instability back upward. With moderate winds, venting expected to be good again.

Monday: Another ridge of high pressure builds in at the surface, bringing more stable conditions. With lighter winds, venting falls to fair.

Comments: Caution advised as fair conditions for Monday are only marginal, and we could see categories drop to poor if mixing heights fall marginally.
